WILL SAVE 42 MILES

NODAWAY DRAINAGE DITCH IS NEARING COMPLETION.

IT MAY BE CONTINUED

Prospects for Big Ditch Being Extended to Connect With the One in Holt County.

The drainage ditch on the Nodaway river, being dug by a dredge boat, will be finished, it is thought, some time in the fall. They are now west of Burlington Junction, and by Sunday will be up to the Wabash track, one mile west of the Junction. The ditch runs from Braddyville to Quitman and will mean hundreds of dollars to the farmers in the low lands. As far as the ditch has gone now, the farmers are well pleased with the results.

The ditch is to be 18 miles long and will shorten the Nodaway river 42 miles.

From Quitman on, it is thought that the people in that community and around Skidmore and Graham will get busy and take the drainage ditch on down to the drainage ditch they have in Holt county. A meeting is to be held at Skidmore this week to discuss the matter and no doubt, the farmers will decide to go ahead with the proposition, which will mean a great deal to that section. The farmers in that community will have to do something to check the river from overflowing when the present drainage ditch joins the river at Quitman.

TO BE WITH FACULTY.

Two More Teachers for the Summer Term of the Normal School.

Two more teachers in addition to the regular teachers are to be added to the Normal faculty for the summer term. They are J. U. Croson, superintendent of the Mound City schools; and J. H. Eckleberry, superintendent of the Hamilton schools.

WENT TO MINERAL SPRINGS.

Auto Party Visits Burlington Junction's Famous Health Resort.

For a week or so rest and vacation, Nodaway county people could not beat the Mineral Springs at Burlington Junction, and when the people here take more of an interest in that institution, it will help out a place, which will turn out to be a big institution.

So thought a party of Maryville men that made a trip to the Springs on Sunday in O. G. Harbison's new automobile, a Winston Six. The car was driven by John Sewell of Burlington Junction. Mr. Harbison is the proprietor of the Mineral Springs and intends within the near future, to make some improvements. The party had dinner at the Springs and went over the place. In the party were: Geo. B. Baker, W. H. Allen, J. E. Melvin, E. E. Williams, H. F. McDougal and James Todd.

CLEARED $38.

Mothers' Circle Entertainment Netted Them That Much for the Play Grounds Fund.

The audience that greeted the children who presented the program at the high school auditorium Saturday night for the benefit of the playground fund of the Mothers' Circle, was delighted with what it heard.

Little Edward Tindall, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Tindall of East Third street, was the star of the evening. He impersonated the part of a little boy who attended a meeting of the sewing circle which was held at his mother's home. While his mother was out preparing to serve the refreshments her small son innocently entertained(?) them by telling them things he had heard said of them through questions the ladies asked him during his mother's absence. Master Edward took his part so cleverly that he was compelled to come back and make a bow to his auditors who went crazy over him.

The Mother Goose play was extra good, the entire cast of characters being given in costume.

Everything in the program was fine.

SERVICES WELL ATTENDED.

Memorial Day Fittingly Observed in Maryville Sunday—Rev. Miller Gave Sermon.

Memorial Day services were held in the Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon and were largely attended. The members of the G. A. R. and old soldiers and members of W. R. Rev. S. D. Harkness conducted the services. Dr. J. S. Ford led in prayer and Rev. C. J. Miller gave the Memorial sermon, his subject being "True Heroes." Rev. Miller took his subject from "I fought a good fight" II Timothy 4:7. W. H. Crawford sang a solo.

Auto Party Had Hard Luck.

The employees of the Remus department store started to Concepcion Sunday morning at 11 o'clock to visit New Engelberg Abbey Church and convent. Although they had a good car and a good driver, things began to happen when they were a short distance this side of Ravenwood and repairs had to be sent to them from Maryville. They ate their dinners while waiting. The repairs made, they started off again, confident that everything was well, when lo, as they reached the other side of Ravenwood a few miles, something else happened and they waited at the home of King Davis until another car from Maryville came after them to bring them home. They had a good time, however, and haven't near given up their trip to Concepcion, which they will venture again some time soon. They will not go to the Ravenwood road next time. They're afraid somebody don't want them over there, the way things kept happening and happening to them along the way. Those in the party were Miss Helen Dougan, Miss Jennie Deany, Paul Denny, Alfred Bates, Orla and Ray Robey.

NEGOTIATIONS OFF DREW A BIG CROWD

NO COMPROMISE FOR MR. STREET ON WATER PROPOSITION.

CONTINUE TO SINK WELLS

City to Go Ahead in Endeavor to Find New Source of Supply Adequate for City's Needs.

President C. F. Street of the city water company and the board of public works were unable to agree Saturday afternoon at a conference held between members of the board and Mr. Street, as to a price on the water plant.

Mr. Street stuck to his original proposition that he would take $54,425 for the plant, or that he would leave the price of the plant to a board of arbitrators composed of an engineer to be appointed by the water company, one by the board, and the third one selected by the two. Mr. Street said further than this, he could do no more as he was not authorized by the bondholders of the company in London.

Negotiations with the water company will be dispensed with until the board of public works can see how their test wells plan out. If the city can get a good well supply, the water plant will not be worth so much, but on the other hand, if the well supply is not sufficient for the city, then the water plant will be worth more to the city.

Mr. Street is strongly of the opinion that the city can't be furnished sufficient water with wells and that the only place that can provide enough water is the water plant. The board of public works thinks that a good well supply can be had from the wells and as far as they have gone on testing wells on the Beal land, it looks very encouraging.

The board offered to compromise with Mr. Street, but he rejected the proposition, sticking to his original one.

So the only course now will be to see how the test wells will plan out. The board is getting their bond issue in shape so as to have them ready to float when needed.

STRUCK SAND AND GRAVEL.

The Fourth Well on the Beal Tract Looks Encouraging.

On the fourth well being drilled on the Beal land, west of the Wabash track in East Maryville, sand and gravel were struck at a depth of 53 feet and they were unable to go through more than a foot or so of this. Water immediately rose up to a height of 45 feet. They intend to go to a depth of 60 feet on this well if they find a way to go through the sand and gravel.

Other wells are being drilled and will be dug. As far as the board of public works have gone, it looks very good for a well supply for Maryville.

OFFICERS AT A LOSS TO DISPOSE OF CRAZY PRISONER.

HAS BEEN IN 18 ASYLUMS

Sheriff Has Been Unable to Locate His Residence and Can't Send Him to State Institution.

Sheriff W. R. Tilson is at loss to know what to do with one John Rogers, who was arrested last week at the Burlington station as he had displayed signs of being mentally unbalanced. Rogers is at present in the county jail and all he can talk about is railroad work, such as switching. He was picked up by Sheriff Tilson as he had opened the switches in both the Wabash and Burlington yards here, but they were discovered in time to prevent an accident.

Rogers claimed that his home is in Louisiana and that he has been away for 18 years. He says that he has been in 18 asylums, naming some of the places, such as Clarinda, and Independence in Iowa, and two places in Illinois. He told Sheriff Tilson that he came to Omaha with an attaché of the Lincoln, Nebr., asylum and that he got on a train in that city to go to Burlington Junction.

Sheriff Tilson wrote the authorities at Lincoln and received word that they know no such man and that he was not in the asylum there.

Other letters are being sent out by Sheriff Tilson to asylums over the country in order to find out whether he is an escaped lunatic and about his relatives. In order for Nodaway county to send him to the asylum, it is necessary for Rogers to be a resident of the county.

HE SAID.

First he said: "Under no circumstances will I accept another nomination."

Then he said: "I will accept the nomination if tendered."

Then he said: "I will 'bust' the party wide open if it is not tendered."

He says "The bosses are against me." This is doubtless as true elsewhere as it is in Kansas and Missouri. The bosses in Kansas are Stubbs and Leland. The bosses in Missouri are Hadley and Dickey.

He says: "The interests are against me." The sworn statement in Albany is that the Roosevelt committee spent $71,000 trying to carry New York county alone. The sum of $71,000 for one county indicates a "herrel" practically bottomless. Hariman and others "put up" in 1904. Perkins and others are "putting up" now.

He says—but what's the use? Given a good nervy, unscrupulous conscienceless political hypocrite with unlimited funds, and it doesn't make much difference what he says; he can get plenty of followers—Kansas City Journal.

Seniors Picnic.

The members of the graduating class of the Maryville high school spent a very enjoyable afternoon fishing and picnicking at the Lee farm, east of town, Saturday afternoon. Four boys of the class were the hosts of the occasion, and even planned the "cats" with the help of their mothers. Fishing was the amusement of the afternoon, and Waltons "Complete Angler" was an entirely unnecessary adjunct when it was noticed how some of the fair damsels manipulated the fishing rod. And they really caught 'em too. Picnic ball also proved to be a popular pastime. Miss Dora Carpenter chaperoned the young people and they say that she is the "only" chaperon. Those present were: Misses Dale Hoffman, Glen Hotchkiss, Viva Cloud and her guest, Miss Wallace, Grace DeMotte, Gladys Warren, Eleanor Smith, Cathern Cox, Elizabeth Cook, Hildred Hanna, Mary Halasey, Dora Carpenter and Messrs. Ralph Farmer, Goodson Lytle, Horace Gibson and Orlo Quinn, hosts and Ova Goff.

Home Health Club

By DR. DAVID H. REEDER,
LaPorte, Ind.

THEY ARE LEARNING: More and more, every day, the Home Health Club is finding reason for self-gratulation that its constant urgings are having effect that is as widespread as the public prints. Many special articles are appearing in the newspapers endorsing and emphasizing our theories and methods in the use of Nature's remedies for ills and the prevention of disease. An example of this is a prominent article in a late Chicago daily headed: "Making What You Eat Your Medicine." This speaks of how primitive people and animals cure all their ills by eating curative vegetables and fruits and how they instinctively understand the healing properties that are contained in the Great Storehouse of Nature. It repeats what the Home Health Club so often says: "If a man understood and applied the same laws that these savages and other animals do, he would need no doctor."

The Home Health Club's book volume five, "Medicinal Plants of America" especially and exclusively, treats of these facts. This article particularly mentions the following: Pineapple that is discovered to be "a sort of complete medicine sheet in itself for derangements of the stomach."

Pineapple has been regarded as an indigestible food and it is when the pulp is swallowed. The juice alone contains the medicinal quality and this should not be sweetened, but slightly salted. This juice has a digestive principle much like pepsin. In diphtheritic sore throat and croup, it acts most favorably, the powerful and penetrating acid serving to dissolve the false membrane to the great relief of the patient.

Beets help to make new, good blood and should be eaten raw for this purpose and served as a salad with oil and lemon juice.

Celery is strong in medicinal effect, helpful in nervousness, nervous dyspepsia, rheumatism and neuralgia. It should be chewed until the juices are extracted, and none of the pulp should be swallowed. The green leaves and the roots boiled make an excellent soup for the purpose mentioned.

Lettuce cools the system, and is good for sleeplessness, and it should be eaten green. When it is white it has been bleached and much of its medicinal quality is taken from it.

Carrots are excellent for the blood, for asthma and nervousness. They should be eaten raw, finely chopped and served as a salad with lettuce and dressing.

Tomatoes are good for the liver, acting directly upon that organ. They should always be eaten raw when used as medicine. Meat destroys the vegetable calomel in them. The skin should never be eaten.

Spinich, dandelion and asparagus are all good for the kidneys. Asparagus should be used only in spring and summer.

The onion is the king of vegetable medicines. It is excellent for nervousness, sleeplessness and as a binding to sore throats. Onion syrup is potent in the cure of coughs, colds, hoarseness, and is well known as an old-fashioned and perfect remedy.

Of lemons a great doctor has said that if they cost a dollar a piece they would be the greatest remedy known for numerous ills, for fevers, rheumatism, liver troubles, biliousness and colds they are without a rival. Never combine the lemon with sugar or other cane products, molasses and the like. Sugar instantly destroys the medical value of lemon juices.

Watermelon is of great value in yellow fever cases and in erysipelas. Under circumstances of general nature, they are good for kidney and especially bladder troubles. The pulp should not be swallowed when the watermelon is used medicinally.

Dear Doctor: For over a year I have been bothered with my left side. Under the lower rib there is a bad pain all the time. On pressure it hurts. Can hear gurgles when I press it. Bad taste in mouth, and bowels out of order all the time. E. C. A.

The description which you have given leads me to believe that you are suffering with fecal impaction at the junction of the transverse and descending colon. I would suggest that you secure the service of a hospital trained nurse for an hour and have her give you what is called by surgeons as a "high Enema." For this purpose you must have a soft colon tube and a fountain syringe. I believe you will obtain complete relief in this simple and inexpensive manner, but afterward you must be quite certain to eat only such foods as will keep the bowels active for the future or your trouble will grow worse as you grow older. Dr. David H. Reeder.

I am taking it for granted that you mean little chiggers common to many parts of the country and not to the chigoe or chiggers of the tropics.

Memorial Day Flowers

The beautiful custom of honoring those who laid down their lives in sacrifice to the principles for which they fought, and showing a tribute to our loved ones who have died, by covering their graves with flowers at least once a year is one of the most inspiring and poetic breaks in the busy life of our country and it is a credit that Memorial Day is observed with increasing interest each year. The proper observance of Memorial Day requires the right kind of flowers, such flowers as we have in profusion, loose or in appropriate Memorial Designs, etc. Each year we offer a better quality of flowers and our Memorial Day flowers are no exception. Our prices are very reasonable. Mail and phone orders receive prompt attention.

HOT CAMPAIGN ABOUT FINISHED

Fight for Republican Nomination to Close in New Jersey.

BOTH SIDES CLAIM MAJORITY

President to Wind Up Tour by Visiting Atlantic Coast Towns Which Have Already Heard Col. Roosevelt.

Newark, N. J., May 27.—President Taft, ex-President Roosevelt and Senator La Follette rested after three days of the hardest campaigning they have experienced since they began the fight for the Republican presidential nomination. The president and Col. Roosevelt have made more than 40 speeches each since last Thursday and plan to wind up their speaking tours by two days more vigorous work. Senator La Follette has made fewer speeches, but has addressed many thousands of voters.

"Anybody But Wilson."
Gov. Wilson's supporters say that his speech in Jersey City defined the principal issue at stake in the Democratic primary campaign. The governor asserted that the real instructions given the "uninstructed" delegates on the Democratic ticket would be "anybody but Wilson." The Republican and Democratic campaigns in New Jersey differ widely in that the Republican candidates have made their appeals upon national issues, while Gov. Wilson and his supporters and the local speakers that are pleading for the defeat of the governor, have dwelt upon the party struggle within the state.

Both Roosevelt and Taft managers claim four delegates-at-large, which will be elected by the vote of the whole state, and at least 16 out of the 24 district delegates. If anything the Roosevelt claims are the more sweeping.

Taft Has Throat Trouble.
President Taft had to interrupt his rush for a short time Saturday night to have his throat treated, but expects to be in excellent speaking form again after resting a day and two nights at his brother's home in New York. The president will start early in the morning, visiting the towns along the Atlantic shore, which have already heard Col. Roosevelt.

Col. Roosevelt spent the day at Oyster Bay and will invade the country to the southeast of this city, going as far south as Princeton.

TO DEVELOP BETTER CITIES

Fourth Annual Conference Opens in Boston to Plan for Various Improvements.

Boston, May 27.—Mayor Fitzgerald welcomed the delegates to the fourth national conference on city planning this afternoon with a formal luncheon at the Lenox. About 300 representative delegates from cities of the United States, Canada and Europe attended the affair.

In the course of his brief speech of welcome, the mayor dwelt upon the past performances of the conference and announced that particular attention would be paid at this meeting to the development of civic conditions. The purpose of the conference is the intelligent guidance of the physical growth of cities and towns.

Following the luncheon the city planners adjourned till 8 o'clock tonight, when the first regular session of the convention will be held in the public library. At this session the meaning and progress of city planning will be the subject of papers to be read by Frederick Law Olmstead, Prof. George E. Swain of Harvard and Arnold W. Brunner of New York. The deliberations of the delegates will close on Wednesday with a dinner.

WABASH ENGINE WAS DERAILED

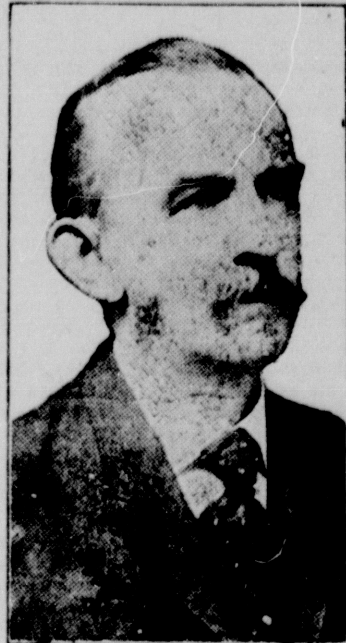

Engine Jumped in Time to Save His Life, But Was Severely Scalded.

Columbia, Mo., May 27.—Walter Skinner, engineer on a Wabash passenger train which runs between Centralia and Columbia, jumped from his cab when his engine left the tracks a few miles from Centralia. He was scalded and received severe injuries. His condition is dangerous. B. J. Reinhart, the fireman, also jumped, but was not injured. None of the coaches left the track and no passengers were injured. Skinner lives in Centralia.

Hadley to Tour North Road
Jefferson City, May 27.—Gov. Hadley and the members of the state board of agriculture will make another dash across Missouri in motor cars next Friday, when an inspection will be made of the north Missouri cross-state highway, which is now being dragged and put into shape for the trip.

Wright Still Improving.
Dayton, O., May 27.—The condition of Wilbur Wright, the inventor of the aeroplane, who is ill at his home here with typhoid fever, is somewhat improved, and his physicians now say he has an excellent chance for recovery.

SENATOR CRANE.

Winthrop Murray Crane, United States senator from Massachusetts, has announced that he will not be a candidate for re-election. He succeeded Senator Hoar in 1904.

PROPOSE BIG BOND ISSUE

BUCHANAN COUNTY MAY VOTE MILLION DOLLAR FUND.

Nearly a Hundred Farmers Meet at St. Joseph and Unanimously Endorse Proposition.

St. Joseph, Mo., May 27.—Buchanan county's farmers desire good roads and at a large meeting held here under the auspices of the Commercial club's good road committee it was unanimously voted to urge the county court to submit a proposition for a $1,000,000 highway bond issue as soon as possible. Nearly 100 of the most influential farmers of the county, representing all districts, favored the club's plan. The farmers were enthusiastic in their support of the proposed bond issue.

James Spoor, one of the wealthiest of the farmers, reported that within the last few weeks he had talked to more than 100 farmers and all were in favor of the bond issue.

It is likely that the proposition will be submitted at a special election, instead of at the August primaries, as originally planned. It is feared that the proposition might not carry at a general primary, as many would fail to vote.

The plan of the Commerce club is to float four $250,000 bond issues, one each year for four consecutive years. With what the county would derive from the sale of the bonds, from taxation and from the dramshop licenses, there would be available for road use the first year, after allowing for expenses, $409,000. The second year the net amount would be $294,500, the third year $375,000, and the fourth year $347,000, and so on up to the eleventh year, when the county could drop back to the 15-cent levy, as it has it now.

FARM BUREAU TO INCORPORATE

Agriculturists of Pettis County Provide for Permanency of New Institution.

Sedalia, Mo., May 27.—The Pettis county bureau of agriculture, recently instituted, with S. M. Jordan as manager, is to be incorporated. Such was the decision at a meeting composed of representative farmers from every township in the county held here. The incorporated bureau will be directed by an advisory council composed of a president, two vice-presidents, secretary, treasurer, manager and two members from each township.

The meeting also appointed committees to arrange for the county farmers' institute and basket picnic to be held on the state fair grounds here July Fourth.

Stubbs Likes Oregon Plan.

Topeka, May 27.—Gov. Stubbs sent telegrams to all of the other candidates for the United States senate from Kansas asking them to join with him in a request to all candidates for the state legislature to sign and file public statements pledging themselves to vote for the candidate who receives the largest vote, regardless of party.

Would Learn Steel Earnings.

Washington, May 27.—A resolution designed to lay bare the capitalization and earnings in the iron, steel, sugar, cotton and wool industries of the United States was introduced by Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska. It calls upon the president for a compilation of statistics in these lines.

St. Louis Aviator Falls.

Winnipeg, Manitoba, May 27.—Hilary Beach, a St. Louis aviator, barely escaped death at dusk here when he lost control of his aeroplane and fell 100 feet. He was only slightly injured, but the machine was demolished.

Peruvian Rioters Kill Four.

Lima, Peru, May 27.—Serious rioting occurred both here and at Callao as a result of the presidential election. Four persons were killed and several wounded.

NEW BISHOPS CONSECRATED

Methodist Service Remarkable for Simplicity and Solemnity.

HIGHEST HONOR OF THE CHURCH

Of the Eight Men Selected Three are From the West—Auditorium at Minneapolis Could Not Accommodate Throng.

Minneapolis, Minn., May 27.—In services remarkable alike for their simplicity and solemnity, eight bishops or general superintendents and two missionary bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church, elected at the present session of the general conference, took the vows which bestowed upon them both the highest power and honor in the possession of the church. Those who, by their vows, took upon themselves the administration of the church's affairs, were:

General superintendents—Homer C. Stuntz, New York; T. S. Henderson, Brooklyn; W. O. Shepard, Chicago; Naphthali Lucecock, Kansas City; F. J. McConnell, president Depauw university, Greencastle, Ind.; F. D. Leete, Detroit, Mich.; R. J. Cooke, New York; W. P. Thirkeld, president Howard university, a negro institution, at Washington, D. C.

Crowd Fills Streets.

Hours before the auditorium was opened for the general public, an immense crowd filled the street before the police-guarded doors, and passed the time in the singing of hymns. When the curtain was raised, at 3 o'clock, upon the members of the board of bishops, the bishops-elect, their presenting friends and other officials of the church, not a seat was vacant, and scores had been turned away.

During the entire preliminary service, in which bishop after bishop took part in the reading of the Scriptures or of the ritual of consecration, there was a hush over the audience that permitted the low tones of the speakers to penetrate every portion of the building.

Dr. Stuntz First.

Dr. Stuntz was the first to be consecrated, the venerable Bishops Henry W. Warren and John M. Walden, both of whom now are retired, performing the ceremony. Others received the "laying on of hands," in the order in which they were elected, two ministerial friends presenting them, and the different bishops officiating in each case.

As a climax to the services of consecration, the entire board of bishops, including those newly elected, repaired to the grave in a local cemetery of Bishop Isaac Joyce to pay homage to his memory.

The conference will begin upon the closing of the business of the church, the principal event being the selection of editors of the various church papers.

MOTOR ACCIDENT KILLED FOUR

Engine Went Dead Just as Auto Crossed Suburban Railroad Track—One Badly Injured.

Centerton, Ind., May 27.—Four persons were killed here when their motor car went dead on the tracks of the Martinsville division of the Indianapolis Terre Haute & Eastern Traction company and was struck by a car. The motor was thrown into a ditch and wrecked. The dead are Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Brown, Miss Bonnie Bailey and Miss Jessie Cure. All lived in Martinsville, Ind.

Edds Brown, aged 19, son of the dead couple, was driving the motor car. He owes his life to the fact that he jumped when he saw he was unable to get the machine started. He was injured severely.

Dr. Hyde's Third Trial Begins.

Kansas City, May 27.—The third trial of Dr. Bennett Clark Hyde, the physician charged with murdering Col. Thomas H. Swope and attempting to exterminate the Swope heirs that he might gain control of the colonel's millions, began in division 2 of the criminal court here today. Hyde has already been once convicted of the murder of Colonel Swope, but the conviction was reversed by the supreme court of Missouri and another trial was ordered. The second trial came to an abrupt end when Harry Waldron, a juror, escaped from the jury room and later was adjudged insane.

GRANDMOTHERS USED SAGE TEA

To Darken the Hair and Restore Gray and Faded Hair to Its Natural Color.

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made a "sage tea," and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hairs before they are fifty, but they are beginning to appreciate the wisdom of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair and are fast following suit.

The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it can get a ready-to-use preparation called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. As a scalp tonic and color restorer this preparation is vastly superior to the ordinary "sage tea" made by our grandmothers. The growth and beauty of the hair depends on a healthy condition of the scalp. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy quickly kills the dandruff germs which rob the hair of its life, color and lustre, makes the scalp clean and healthy, gives the hair strength, color and beauty, and makes it grow.

PREPARING TO MOVE ON CUBA

American Government to Protect Lives and Property in Island.

INTERVENTION IF NECESSARY

Army and Navy Force Ready to Step in if Uprising Gains Beyond Control—Labor Troubles Considered Serious Menace.

Washington, May 27.—Insurrection and disorders in Cuba which threaten the life and property of Americans and are believed by the United States to be spreading beyond control of the Cuban government have already caused the American government to take active steps in preparation to cope with any situation which may arise in the island republic.

Two divisions of the Atlantic battle ship fleet were ordered to take on their full quota of marines, making a total of 1,300 in addition to the 700 now on the way to Guantanamo on the Prairie and rendezvous at Key West, ready to move to Cuba at the instant their presence is needed. In all, a dozen warships will be in the immediate vicinity of Cuba within a few days.

Army Ready to Move.

The army is prepared with an expeditionary force of 15,000 men, if it is needed, and plans for a campaign to stamp out the rebellion prepared by the general staff are ready to be put into execution at the call of the president.

Because of a desire to avoid any appearance of intervention in a political sense, it is said, the state department instead of calling upon the army, turned to the navy first. The officials have lost no opportunity of earnestly disclaiming any intention of a military occupation of Cuba unless the insurrection should get completely beyond the control of the Cuban government.

Labor Troubles Most Serious.

The insurrection and the serious labor troubles as a result of the renewal of the longshoremen's strike are believed to warrant American preparedness. Of the two, the disturbances which probably will arise at the Cuban ports, through the strikers' operations, are believed to be the more immediate and dangerous elements in the situation. In addition to the stoppage of trade, the throwing upon the streets of large numbers of riotous laborers and the privations likely to follow the cutting of water transportation the Cuban government is likely to find itself without the sinews of war, at a time when they are most needed, through the total suspension of customs receipts which form the principal revenues of the island.

Rebels Gain in Numbers.

Havana, May 27.—The government still persists that the insurgent forces are not numerous and are scantily armed, but information from other sources indicates that the rebels are strong and increasing in numbers.

Reports from various parts show that five persons were injured by falling timbers and four were stunned by lightning. Ten barns, two houses and two silos were demolished. Many trees were blown down. Forty head of sheep, five horses and two cows were killed by lightning or falling timbers. Many telephone lines were put out of use.

Atchison, Kan., May 27.—When he attempted to land on a field crowded with spectators here, Nels J. Nelson, an aviator, fell 20 feet, wrecking the machine. Nelson was uninjured, although pinned under the machine. The accident was caused by landing with the wind.

A Socialist for Congress.

Manhattan, Kan., May 27.—Grant Chapin, wealthy stock man of Greens, Kan., was selected for the congressional nominee by the Socialist fifth district convention here.

CITY TO OIL ROADS.

Will Assist Normal in Oiling a Road to the Grounds—Have Ordered the Oil.

Mayor Robey stated Monday that the city would oil the road from the end of the pavement on West Third street up to the road leading into Chautauqua park, and from there on, the Normal would take the work up. President Taylor also intends that the road from the south entrance to the east of the president's residence to the building be oiled and work will start this week.

The crude oil has been ordered and the experiment will be made, if it is a success, the city will probably use more of it.

Death at Clearmont.

Mrs. Freelove Combs, for many years a resident of Clearmont, died at her home there Saturday evening after a year's illness. The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Christian Church in Clearmont by the pastor. Burial in the cemetery at that place. Mrs. Combs was fifty-eight years old and is survived by six children. They are: Mrs. Ida Frymire of Braddyville; Mrs. Jeff Frymire of Clearmont, and Delbert, James, Fred and Viola Combs of Clearmont.

Mr. Colden in the City.

C. J. Colden of Kansas City was in Maryville Monday on business.

Miss Maud Bainum went to Kansas City Monday morning for a two weeks' visit with her aunt, Mrs. C. S. Heimbauch, and her grandmother, Mrs. Hannah Garten.

Influence of College Men.

As educated men filter through the community, reforms are obtained that twenty years ago seemed millennial. The separation of local from state sources of revenue, the separation of local from national elections, the treatment of a franchise as valuable property, the discriminating between ordinary industry and natural monopoly, the practice of scientific charity and penology, the concentration of responsibility in government—these and a score of other good things which once seemed as far above popular comprehension as four-dimensional space, have come to pass, thanks chiefly to the radiations from the classrooms.—Century Magazine.

Receiver Has Sanitary Ear Pad.

Sanitary attachments for the transmitters of telephones are numerous in this country, but France has gone one better in the matter of a sanitary pad for the receiving end of the telephone. The ordinary hard-rubber earpiece of the monophone type of instrument, which is much used in France, is removed and its place taken by a round pad formed of 250 leaves of sterilized paper. Every time the telephone is used one of the leaves is torn off. The purpose of the pad is, of course, to protect the ear from being soiled.—Popular Mechanics.

Contrast.

Upton Sinclair at a vegetarian dinner in New York condemned certain laws.

"We scrap machinery that is five or ten years old," said Mr. Sinclair, "but we are content to live under laws formed three centuries ago."

Plan to Make Rome Seaport.

The latest project to make Rome a seaport is to lay out a port 35 feet deep near Castel Fusaro, formed by running two jetties out into the sea for some distance, as at the port of Ymuiden, Holland. From the port will lead a ship canal 15 miles long and 200 feet wide and 27 feet deep. At Rome shipping accommodations will be laid out in the river below the city, and this will be connected with the navigable part of the Tiber by a system of locks. It will cost about $15,000,000 to carry out the project. Opponents of the idea claim it will not pay, but the promoters affirm that when once the city is connected with the Mediterranean there will result a great amount of traffic.

Refutation Tours.

"People are very likely to believe what they see in print."

"Yep," replied Farmer Cornstossel. "That's why those candidates have to keep traveling around the country so much. They have to prove that they don't look like some of the pictures of 'em that get into the papers."

Too Much "Ette."

Elizabeth Murray was talking last winter at a tea at the Colony club in New York about charity.

"At this time of the year," she said, "it is a wise charity to give warm, soft, woolen underwear to the children of the poor. This saves poor children from the hardships of flannellette."

"I heard of an East Side mother the other day who bought a shirt of Sannelette for her little boy. The shirt was very cheap; but after the first washing she brought it back to the dealer again."

"I think, sir," she said, "you ought to change this. When I washed it the flannel all came out and only left the ette."

HAD LOST HIS "CREDENTIALS"

Salesman May Have Improved His Appearance, But Shave Cost Him Customers.

Charles A. Cotterill has a grand and gorgeous set of whiskers which, in their own gold and tawny way, show as many varying hues as changeable silk under the midday sun. There are mixed up in that growth of beard all the marvelous tints of the sunrise, the South African gold mines, and the circus posters. But there is a sad story connected with the facial adornment.

The first year that Cotterill traveled for a big drug firm of New York city, he waved the whiskers up and down a wide territory, selling much merchandise and making many friends. At the end of the season he got a shave and on his next trip the tragedy began to unfold. Nobody knew him. Every time he went up to a man to whom he had made a sale previously, the fellow would say:

"You are not Cotterill. How well I remember Cotterill! He was a merry, good-natured, entertaining fellow, and he told such good stories. Besides, he had whiskers, and you have none. You can't be Cotterill."

After a week of this, Cotterill, utterly dejected by the fact that he could make no headway in his business, telegraphed his firm as follows:

"Must have leave of absence long enough to grow a beard."
He has not shaved since.—Popular Magazine.

MODEL IN A DOUBLE SENSE

One Quality in Wax Figure Which Convinced Mr. Jones She Would Make a Good Wife.

Mr. Jones came home at an unseasonable hour the other night, and was surprised to see Mrs. Jones sitting up for him below stairs with no other light than that of the gas lamp which faced the door to keep her company. "M-M-Marie," he said, huskily, "you shouldn't sit up 'sate when I'm out on business."

As Mrs. Jones did not answer him, he continued, in an alarmed voice:

"Shorry, m'dear, but it's last time—tell you I'm sorry—won't speak to me?"

At this moment Mrs. Jones called from above stairs:

"Mr. Jones, to whom are you talking at this hour of the night?"

"Thash what I'd like to know m-m-myself," stammered Jones.

Mrs. Jones hastened downstairs, lamp in hand. When she saw the situation, she laughed, in spite of being very angry.

"It's the model," she said. "The model I bought today to fit my dresses on!"

"Yes, thash so," said Jones, tipsily. "Model woman—didn't talk back. Make some fellow good wife."

Point of View.

When the necessity of daily labor is removed and the call of social duty fulfilled, that of moderate and timely amusement claims its place as a want inherent in our own nature. To relieve this want and fill up the mental vacancy games are devised, books are written, music is composed, spectacles and plays are invented and exhibited. And if these plays have a moral and virtuous tendency; if the sentiments expressed are calculated to rouse our love of what is noble, and our contempt of what is base and mean; if they unite hundreds in a sympathetic admiration of virtue, abhorrence of vice or derision of folly—it will remain to be shown how far the spectator is more criminally engaged than if he had passed the evening in the idle gossip of society, in the feverish pursuits of ambition or in the unseated and insatiable struggle after gain.—Walter Scott.

Wife's Unqualified Praise.

The young novelist, had had a hard time of it, and his dear wife had had just as hard a one. She held his talents in poor esteem and often urged him to try something else, for she was sometimes hungry and all the time ill clad. But one day his luck changed. He began to make money. And there came a day when he was able to write his check for $100 and pass it to his wife.

Her eyes filled with tears as she read it.

"Willbrand, darling," she said, as she hastened around the table and put her arm about his neck, "I'll take back all the mean things I ever said about your work. This is the best thing you ever wrote?"

Legend About the Wind.

We have plenty of wind in London just now, especially at that corner by Blackfriars Station. But the men of Lincoln assert that the breeziest spot in England is outside their cathedral. According to a local legend, the devil some hundreds of years ago met the wind outside the cathedral and told him to wait there while he went in to see the dean and chapter. The wind is still waiting, for the devil has not yet been able to tear himself away from the congenial society he found on paying his visit. Consequently all the year round a strong breeze blows in front of Lincoln cathedral.—London Chronicle.

NODAWAY DRAINAGE DITCH IS NEARING COMPLETION.

IT MAY BE CONTINUED

Prospects for Big Ditch Being Extended to Connect With the One in Holt County.

The drainage ditch on the Nodaway river, being dug by a dredge boat, will be finished, it is thought, some time in the fall. They are now west of Burlington Junction, and by Sunday will be up to the Wabash track, one mile west of the Junction. The ditch runs from Braddyville to Quitman and will mean hundreds of dollars to the farmers in the low lands. As far as the ditch has gone now, the farmers are well pleased with the results.

The ditch is to be 18 miles long and will shorten the Nodaway river 42 miles.

From Quitman on, it is thought that the people in that community and around Skidmore and Graham will get busy and take the drainage ditch on down to the drainage ditch they have in Holt county. A meeting is to be held at Skidmore this week to discuss the matter and no doubt, the farmers will decide to go ahead with the proposition, which will mean a great deal to that section. The farmers in that community will have to do something to check the river from overflowing when the present drainage ditch joins the river at Quitman.

WENT TO MINERAL SPRINGS.

Auto Party Visits Burlington Junction's Famous Health Resort.

For a week or so rest and vacation, Nodaway county people could not beat the Mineral Springs at Burlington Junction, and when the people here take more of an interest in that institution, it will help out a place, which will turn out to be a big institution.

So thought a party of Maryville men that made a trip to the Springs on Sunday in O. G. Harbison's new automobile, a Winston Six. The car was driven by John Sewell of Burlington Junction. Mr. Harbison is the proprietor of the Mineral Springs and intends within the near future, to make some improvements. The party had dinner at the Springs and went over the place. In the party were: Geo. B. Baker, W. H. Allen, J. E. Melvin, E. E. Williams, H. F. McDougal and James Todd.

Mothers' Circle Entertainment Netted Them That Much for the Play Grounds Fund.

The audience that greeted the children who presented the program at the high school auditorium Saturday night for the benefit of the playground fund of the Mothers' Circle, was delighted with what it heard.

Little Edward Tindall, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Tindall of East Third street, was the star of the evening. He impersonated the part of a little boy who attended a meeting of the sewing circle which was held at his mother's home. While his mother was out preparing to serve the refreshments her small son innocently entertained (?) them by telling them things he had heard said of them through questions the ladies asked him during his mother's absence. Master Edward took his part so cleverly that he was compelled to come back and make a bow to his auditors who went crazy over him.

The Mother Goose play was extra good, the entire cast of characters being given in costume.

Everything in the program was fine.

SERVICES WELL ATTENDED.

Auto Party Had Hard Luck.

The employees of the Remus department store started to Conception Sunday morning at 11 o'clock to visit New England Abbey Church and convent. Although they had a good car and a good driver, things began to happen when they were a short distance this side of Ravenwood and repairs had to be sent to them from Maryville. They ate their dinners while waiting. The repairs made, they started off again, confident that everything was well, when lo, as they reached the other side of Ravenwood a few miles, something else happened and they waited at the home of King Davis until another car from Maryville came after them to bring them home. They had a good time, however, and haven't near given up their trip to Conception, which they will venture again some time soon. They will not go to the Ravenwood road next time. They're afraid somebody don't want them over there, the way things kept happening and happening to them along the way. Those in the party were: Miss Helen Dougan, Miss Jennie Deany, Paul Denny, Alfred Bates, Orla and Ray Robey.

NEGOTIATIONS OFF DREW A BIG CROWD

NO COMPROMISE FOR MR. STREET ON WATER PROPOSITION.

CONTINUE TO SINK WELLS

City to Go Ahead in Endeavor to Find New Source of Supply Adequate for City's Needs.

President C. F. Street of the city water company and the board of public works were unable to agree Saturday afternoon at a conference held between members of the board and Mr. Street, as to a price on the water plant.

Mr. Street stuck to his original proposition that he would take $54,425 for the plant, or that he would leave the price of the plant to a board of arbitrators composed of an engineer to be appointed by the water company, one by the board, and the third one selected by the two. Mr. Street said further than this, he could do no more as he was not authorized by the bondholders of the company in London.

Negotiations with the water company will be dispensed with until the board of public works can see how their test wells plan out. If the city can get a good well supply, the water plant will not be worth so much, but on the other hand, if the well supply is not sufficient for the city, then the water plant will be worth more to the city.

Mr. Street is strongly of the opinion that the city can't be furnished sufficient water with wells and that the only place that can provide enough water is the water plant. The board of public works thinks that a good well supply can be had from the wells and as far as they have gone on testing wells on the Beal land, it looks very encouraging.

The board offered to compromise with Mr. Street, but he rejected the proposition, sticking to his original one.

So the only course now will be to see how the test wells will plan out. The board is getting their bond issue in shape so as to have them ready to float when needed.

STRUCK SAND AND GRAVEL.

The Fourth Well on the Beal Tract Looks Encouraging.

On the fourth well being drilled on the Beal land, west of the Wabash track in East Maryville, sand and gravel were struck at a depth of 53 feet and they were unable to go through more than a foot or so of this. Water immediately rose up to a height of 45 feet. They intend to go to a depth of 60 feet on this well if they find a way to go through the sand and gravel.

Other wells are being drilled and will be dug. As far as the board of public works have gone, it looks very good for a well supply for Maryville.

Auto Trip to Bigelow.

James B. Robinson and family drove to Bigelow Sunday and visited at the cottage of the four Maryville young men who are there for the week. CAN'T LET GO OF HIM

Sheriff Has Been Unable to Locate His Residence and Can't Send Him to State Institution.

Sheriff W. R. Tilson is at loss to know what to do with one John Rogers, who was arrested last week at the Burlington station as he had displayed signs of being mentally unbalanced. Rogers is at present in the county jail and all he can talk about is railroad work, such as switching. He was picked up by Sheriff Tilson as he had opened the switches in both the Wabash and Burlington yards here, but they were discovered in time to prevent an accident.

Rogers claimed that his home is in Louisiana and that he has been away for 18 years. He says that he has been in 18 asylums, naming some of the places, such as Clarinda, and Independence in Iowa, and two places in Illinois. He told Sheriff Tilson that he came to Omaha with an attache of the Lincoln, Nebr., asylum and that he got on a train in that city to go to Burlington Junction.

Sheriff Tilson wrote the authorities at Lincoln and received word that they know no such man and that he was not in the asylum there.

Other letters are being sent out by Sheriff Tilson to asylums over the country in order to find out whether he is an escaped lunatic and about his relatives. In order for Nodaway county to send him to the asylum, it is necessary for Rogers to be a resident of the county.

HE SAID.
First he said: "Under no circumstances will I accept another nomination."

Then he said: "I will accept the nomination if tendered."

Then he said: "I will 'bust' the party wide open if it is not tendered. He says 'The bosses are against me.' This is doubtless as true elsewhere as it is in Kansas and Missouri. The bosses in Kansas are Stubbs and Leland. The bosses in Missouri are Hadley and Dickey.

He says: "The interests are against me." The sworn statement in Albany is that the Roosevelt committee spent $71,000 trying to carry New York county alone. The sum of $71,000 for one county indicates a "berrel" practically bottomless. Hariman and others "put up" in 1904. Perkins and others are "putting up" now.

He says—but what's the use? Given a good nerry, unscrupulous conscienceless political hypocrite with unlimited funds, and it doesn't make much difference what he says; he can get plenty of followers.—Kansas City Journal.

Dr. Owen and Elder Tanby were schoolmates together in their college days in Kentucky. They had not met before in forty years and their visit together was as much enjoyed by their hosts as by the two old friends. Elder Tanby is one of the best known Christian church ministers in this section of Missouri.

P. E. O. Chapter Saturday.
The P. E. O. chapter met Saturday afternoon with Miss Nelle Hudson and Miss Mabel Todd hostesses at Miss Todd's home. Following the business session a social time was enjoyed. Hearts were played at three tables, Miss Ella Hamilton of Clarksdale, Mo., scoring the highest. Miss Hamilton and Miss Lella Bonewitz, June brides-to-be, were presented with baskets filled with the chapter's flower, Marguerites. Refreshments were served after the games. There were several out-of-town visitors: Mrs. R. L. Ready of Kansas City, who is the guest of Mrs. O. C. Hanna; Mrs. Fred Monroe of Hopkins, the guest of Miss Nelle Hudson; Miss Ella Hamilton of Clarksdale, the guest of her cousin, Miss Calla Varner; Miss Anna Weber of Wappello, Iowa, the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. A. Miller, and Miss Edna Bonewitz, sister of the bride-to-be. Miss Lella Bonewitz, past-president of the local chapter and a present state officer, and Miss Mabel Todd, president of this chapter, will go next week to the Grand Chapter at Moberly.

Seniors Picnic.
The members of the graduating class of the Maryville high school spent a very enjoyable afternoon fishing and picnicking at the Lee farm, east of town, Saturday afternoon. Four boys of the class were the hosts of the occasion, and even planned the "eats" with the help of their mothers. Fishing was the amusement of the afternoon, and Waltons "Complete Angler" was an entirely unnecessary adjunct when it was noticed how some of the fair damsels manipulated the fishing rod. And they really caught 'em too. Picnic ball also proved to be a popular pastime. Miss Dora Carpenter chaperoned the young people and they say that she is the "only" chaperon. Those present were: Misses Dale Hoffman, Glen Hotchkiss, Viva Cloud and her guest, Miss Wallace, Grace DeMotte, Gladys Warren, Eleanor Smith, Cathern Cox, Elizabeth Cook, Mildred Hanna, Mary Halasey, Dora Carpenter and Messrs. Ralph Farmer, Goodson Lytle, Horace Gibson and Orlo Quinn, hosts and Ova Goff.

By DR. DAVID H. REEDER,
LaPorte, Ind.

THEY ARE LEARNING: More and more, every day, the Home Health Club is finding reason for self-gratulation that its constant urgings are having effect that is as widespread as the public prints. Many special articles are appearing in the newspapers endorsing and emphasizing our theories and methods in the use of Nature's remedies for ills and the prevention of disease. An example of this is a prominent article in a late Chicago daily headed: "Making What You Eat Your Medicine." This speaks of how primitive people and animals cure all their ills by eating curative vegetables and fruits and how they instinctively understand the healing properties that are contained in the Great Storehouse of Nature. It repeats what the Home Health Club so often says: "If a man understood and applied the same laws that these savages and other animals do, he would need no doctor."

The Home Health Club's book volume five, "Medicinal Plants of America" especially and exclusively, treats of these facts. This article particularly mentions the following: Pineapple that is discovered to be "a sort of complete medicine sheet in itself for derangements of the stomach."

Pineapple has been regarded as an indigestible food and it is when the pulp is swallowed. The juice alone contains the medicinal quality and this should not be sweetened, but slightly salted. This juice has a digestive principle much like pepsin. In diphtheritic sore throat and croup, it acts most favorably, the powerful and penetrating acid serving to dissolve the false membrane to the great relief of the patient.

Beets help to make new, good blood and should be eaten raw for this purpose and served as a salad with oil and lemon juice.

Celery is strong in medicinal effect, helpful in nervousness, nervous dyspepsia, rheumatism and neuralgia. It should be chewed until the juices are extracted, and none of the pulp should be swallowed. The green leaves and the roots boiled make an excellent soup for the purpose mentioned.

Lettuce cools the system, and is good for sleeplessness, and it should be eaten green. When it is white it has been bleached and much of its medicinal quality is taken from it.

Carrots are excellent for the blood, for asthma and nervousness. They should be eaten raw, finely chopped and served as a salad with lettuce and dressing.

Tomatoes are good for the liver, acting directly upon that organ. They should always be eaten raw when used as medicine. Meat destroys the vegetable calomel in them. The skin should never be eaten.

Spinich, dandelion and asparagus are all good for the kidneys. Asparagus should be used only in spring and summer.

The onion is the king of vegetable medicines. It is excellent for nervousness, sleeplessness and as a binding to sore throats. Onion syrup is potent in the cure of coughs, colds, hoarseness, and is well known as an old-fashioned and perfect remedy.

Of lemons a great doctor has said that if they cost a dollar a piece they would be the greatest remedy known for numerous ills, for fevers, rheumatism, liver troubles, biliousness and colds they are without a rival. Never combine the lemon with sugar or other cane products, molasses and the like. Sugar instantly destroys the medical value of lemon juices.

Watermelon is of great value in yellow fever cases and in erysipelas. Under circumstances of general nature, they are good for kidney and especially bladder troubles. The pulp should not be swallowed when the watermelon is used medically.

Dear Doctor: For over a year I have been bothered with my left side. Under the lower rib there is a bad pain all the time. On pressure it hurts. Can hear gurgles when I press it. Bad taste in mouth, and bowels out of order all the time. E. C. A.

The description which you have given leads me to believe that you are suffering with fecal impaction at the junction of the transverse and descending colon. I would suggest that you secure the service of a hospital trained nurse for an hour and have her give you what is called by surgeons as a "high Enema." For this purpose you must have a soft colon tube and a fountain syringe. I believe you will obtain complete relief in this simple and inexpensive manner, but afterward you must be quite certain to eat only such foods as will keep the bowels active for the future or your trouble will grow worse as you grow older. Dr. David H. Reeder.

daily. If this does not prove affectual try turpentine, apply to the affected parts.

I am taking it for granted that you mean little chiggers common to many parts of the country and not to the chigoe or chiggers of the tropics.

HOT CAMPAIGN
ABOUT FINISHED

Fight for Republican Nomination to Close in New Jersey.

BOTH SIDES CLAIM MAJORITY

President to Wind Up Tour by Visiting Atlantic Coast Towns Which Have Already Heard Col. Roosevelt.

Newark, N. J., May 27.—President Taft, ex-President Roosevelt and Senator La Follette rested after three days of the hardest campaigning they have experienced since they began the fight for the Republican presidential nomination. The president and Col. Roosevelt have made more than 40 speeches each since last Thursday and plan to wind up their speaking tours by two days more vigorous work. Senator La Follette has made fewer speeches, but has addressed many thousands of voters.

"Anybody But Wilson." Gov. Wilson's supporters say that his speech in Jersey City defined the principal issue at stake in the Democratic primary campaign. The governor asserted that the real instructions given the "uninstructed" delegates on the Democratic ticket would be "anybody but Wilson." The Republican and Democratic campaigns in New Jersey differ widely in that the Republican candidates have made their appeals upon national issues, while Gov. Wilson and his supporters and the local speakers that are pleading for the defeat of the governor, have dwelt upon the party struggle within the state.

Both Roosevelt and Taft managers claim four delegates-at-large, which will be elected by the vote of the whole state, and at least 16 out of the 24 district delegates. If anything the Roosevelt claims are the more sweeping.

Taft Has Throat Trouble. President Taft had to interrupt his rush for a short time Saturday night to have his throat treated, but expects to be in excellent speaking form again after resting a day and two nights at his brother's home in New York. The president will start early in the morning, visiting the towns along the Atlantic shore, which have already heard Col. Roosevelt.

Col. Roosevelt spent the day at Oyster Bay and will invade the country to the southeast of this city, going as far south as Princeton.

TO DEVELOP BETTER CITIES

Fourth Annual Conference Opens in Boston to Plan for Various Improvements.

Boston, May 27.—Mayor Fitzgerald welcomed the delegates to the fourth national conference on city planning this afternoon with a formal luncheon at the Lenox. About 300 representative delegates from cities of the United States, Canada and Europe attended the affair.

In the course of his brief speech of welcome, the mayor dwelt upon the past performances of the conference and announced that particular attention would be paid at this meeting to the development of civic conditions. The purpose of the conference is the intelligent guidance of the physical growth of cities and towns.

Following the luncheon the city planners adjourned till 8 o'clock tonight, when the first regular session of the convention will be held in the public library. At this session the meaning and progress of city planning will be the subject of papers to be read by Frederick Law Olmstead, Prof. George E. Swain of Harvard and Arnold W. Brunner of New York. The deliberations of the delegates will close on Wednesday with a dinner.

PROPOSE BIG BOND ISSUE

BUCHANAN COUNTY MAY VOTE MILLION DOLLAR FUND.

Nearly a Hundred Farmers Meet at St. Joseph and Unanimously Endorse Proposition.

St. Joseph, Mo., May 27.—Buchanan county's farmers desire good roads and at a large meeting held here under the auspices of the Commercial club's good road committee it was unanimously voted to urge the county court to submit a proposition for a $1,000,000 highway bond issue as soon as possible. Nearly 100 of the most influential farmers of the county, representing all districts, favored the club's plan. The farmers were enthusiastic in their support of the proposed bond issue.

James Spoor, one of the wealthiest of the farmers, reported that within the last few weeks he had talked to more than 100 farmers and all were in favor of the bond issue.

It is likely that the proposition will be submitted at a special election, instead of at the August primaries, as originally planned. It is feared that the proposition might not carry at a general primary, as many would fail to vote.

The plan of the Commerce club is to float four $250,000 bond issues, one each year for four consecutive years. With what the county would derive from the sale of the bonds, from taxation and from the dramshop licenses, there would be available for road use the first year, after allowing for expenses, $409,000. The second year the net amount would be $394,500, the third year $375,000, and the fourth year $347,000, and so on up to the eleventh year, when the county could drop back to the 15-cent levy, as it has it now.

FARM BUREAU TO INCORPORATE

Agriculturists of Pettis County Provide for Permanency of New Institution.

The meeting also appointed committees to arrange for the county farmers' institute and basket picnic to be held on the state fair grounds here July Fourth.

NEW BISHOPS CONSECRATED

Methodist Service Remarkable for Simplicity and Solemnity.

HIGHEST HONOR OF THE CHURCH

Of the Eight Men Selected Three are From the West—Auditorium at Minneapolis Could Not Accommodate Throng.

Minneapolis, Minn., May 27.—In services remarkable alike for their simplicity and solemnity, eight bishops or general superintendents and two missionary bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church, elected at the present session of the general conference, took the vows which bestowed upon them both the highest power and honor in the possession of the church.

Those who, by their vows, took upon themselves the administration of the church's affairs, were:

General superintendents—Homer C. Stuntz, New York; T. S. Henderson, Brooklyn; W. O. Shepard, Chicago; Naphthali Lucecock, Kansas City; F. J. McConnell, president Depauw university, Greencastle, Ind.; F. D. Leete, Detroit, Mich.; R. J. Cooke, New York; W. P. Thirkeld, president Howard university, a negro institution, at Washington, D. C.

Crowd Fills Streets.

Hours before the auditorium was opened for the general public, an immense crowd filled the street before the police-guarded doors, and passed the time in the singing of hymns. When the curtain was raised, at 3 o'clock, upon the members of the board of bishops, the bishops-elect, their presenting friends and other officials of the church, not a seat was vacant, and scores had been turned away.

During the entire preliminary service, in which bishop after bishop took part in the reading of the Scriptures or of the ritual of consecration, there was a hush over the audience that permitted the low tones of the speakers to penetrate every portion of the building.

Dr. Stuntz First.

Dr. Stuntz was the first to be consecrated, the venerable Bishops Henry W. Warren and John M. Walden, both of whom now are retired, performing the ceremony. Others received the "laying on of hands," in the order in which they were elected, two ministerial friends presenting them, and the different bishops officiating in each case.

As a climax to the services of consecration, the entire board of bishops, including those newly elected, repaired to the grave in a local cemetery of Bishop Isaac Joyce to pay homage to his memory.

The conference will begin upon the closing of the business of the church, the principal event being the selection of editors of the various church papers.

MOTOR ACCIDENT KILLED FOUR

Engine Went Dead Just as Auto Crossed Suburban Railroad Track—One Badly Injured.

Centerton, Ind., May 27.—Four persons were killed here when their motor car went dead on the tracks of the Martinsville division of the Indianapolis Terre Haute & Eastern Traction company and was struck by a car. The motor was thrown into a ditch and wrecked. The dead are Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Brown, Miss Bonnie Bailey and Miss Jessie Cure. All lived in Martinsville, Ind.

Edds Brown, aged 19, son of the dead couple, was driving the motor car. He owes his life to the fact that he jumped when he saw he was unable to get the machine started. He was injured severely.

Dr. Hyde's Third Trial Begins.

Kansas City, May 27.—The third trial of Dr. Bennett Clark Hyde, the physician charged with murdering Col. Thomas H. Swope and attempting to exterminate the Swope heirs that he might gain control of the colonel's millions, began in division 2 of the criminal court here today. Hyde has already been once convicted of the murder of Colonel Swope, but the conviction was reversed by the supreme court of Missouri and another trial was ordered. The second trial came to an abrupt end when Harry Waldron, a juror, escaped from the jury room and later was adjudged insane.

GRANDMOTHERS USED SAGE TEA

To Darken the Hair and Restore Gray and Faded Hair to Its Natural Color.

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made a "sage tea," and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hairs before they are fifty, but they are beginning to appreciate the wisdom of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair and are fast following suit.

The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it can get a ready-to-use preparation called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. As a scalp tonic and color restorer this preparation is vastly superior to the ordinary "sage tea" made by our grandmothers.

The growth and beauty of the hair depends on a healthy condition of the scalp. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy quickly kills the dandruff germs which rob the hair of its life, color and lustre, makes the scalp clean and healthy, gives the hair strength, color and beauty, and makes it grow.

American Government to Protect Lives and Property in Island.

Army and Navy Force Ready to Step in if Uprising Gets Beyond Control—Labor Troubles Considered Serious Menace.

Washington, May 27.—Insurrection and disorders in Cuba which threaten the life and property of Americans and are believed by the United States to be spreading beyond control of the Cuban government have already caused the American government to take active steps in preparation to cope with any situation which may arise in the island republic.

Two divisions of the Atlantic battle ship fleet were ordered to take on their full quota of marines, making a total of 1,300 in addition to the 700 now on the way to Guantanamo on the Prairie and rendezvous at Key West, ready to move to Cuba at the instant their presence is needed. In all, a dozen warships will be in the immediate vicinity of Cuba within a few days.

Army Ready to Move.

The army is prepared with an expeditionary force of 15,000 men, if it is needed, and plans for a campaign to stamp out the rebellion prepared by the general staff are ready to be put into execution at the call of the president.

Because of a desire to avoid any appearance of intervention in a political sense, it is said, the state department instead of calling upon the army, turned to the navy first. The officials have lost no opportunity of earnestly disclaiming any intention of a military occupation of Cuba unless the insurrection should get completely beyond the control of the Cuban government.

Labor Troubles Most Serious.

The insurrection and the serious labor troubles as a result of the renewal of the longshoremen's strike are believed to warrant American preparedness. Of the two, the disturbances which probably will arise at the Cuban ports, through the strikers' operations, are believed to be the more immediate and dangerous elements in the situation. In addition to the stoppage of trade, the throwing upon the streets of large numbers of riotous laborers and the privations likely to follow the cutting of water transportation the Cuban government is likely to find itself without the sinews of war, at a time when they are most needed, through the total suspension of customs receipts which form the principal revenues of the island.

Rebels Gain in Numbers.

Havana, May 27.—The government still persists that the insurgent forces are not numerous and are scantily armed, but information from other sources indicates that the rebels are strong and increasing in numbers.

Battle Ships Leave New York.

New York, May 27.—The armored cruiser Washington, flagship of Rear Admiral Hugo, Osterhaus, commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet, and four battle ships of the fourth division, have just sailed south on hurry orders.

Two More War Vessels Sail.

Hampton, Va., May 27.—The battle ships Rhode Island and Georgia of the third division of the Atlantic fleet sailed from Hampton Roads early in the evening.

WIND RUINED MISSOURI HOMES

Storm Results in Heavy Property Damage—Many Injured by Lightning.

Butler, Mo., May 27.—A severe windstorm accompanied by a heavy rain, passed over this county. Reports from various parts show that five persons were injured by falling timbers and four were stunned by lightning. Ten barns, two houses and two silos were demolished. Many trees were blown down. Forty head of sheep, five horses and two cows were killed by lightning or falling timbers. Many telephone lines were put out of use.

Quake Terrorizes Mexicans.

Guadalajara, Mex., May 27.—This city was again violently shaken by an earthquake. The shock was the heaviest recorded in the present period of seismic disturbances. Many walls were cracked. Thousands of persons passed the night in the parks and gardens.

Aviator Fell at Atchison.

Atchison, Kan., May 27.—When he attempted to land on a field crowded with spectators here, Nels J. Nelson, an aviator, fell 20 feet, wrecking the machine. Nelson was uninjured, although planned under the machine. The accident was caused by landing with the wind.

Manhattan, Kan., May 27.—Grant Chapin, wealthy stock man of Green, Kan., was selected for the congressional nominee by the Socialist fifth district convention here.

CITY TO OIL ROADS.

Will Assist Normal in Oiling a Road to the Grounds—Have Ordered the Oil.

Mayor Robey stated Monday that the city would oil the road from the end of the pavement on West Third street up to the road leading into Chautauqua park, and from there on, the Normal would take the work up. President Taylor also intends that the road from the south entrance to the east of the president's residence to the building be oiled and work will start this week.

The crude oil has been ordered and the experiment will be made, if it is a success, the city will probably use more of it.

Death at Clearmont.

Mrs. Freecove Combs, for many years a resident of Clearmont, died at her home there Saturday evening after a year's illness. The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Christian Church in Clearmont by the pastor. Burial in the cemetery at that place. Mrs. Combs was fifty-eight years old and is survived by six children. They are: Mrs. Ida Frymire of Braddyville; Mrs. Jeff Frymire of Clearmont; and Delbert, James, Fred and Viola Combs of Clearmont.

Mr. Colden in the City.

C. J. Colden of Kansas City was in Maryville Monday on business.

Miss Maud Bainum went to Kansas City Monday morning for a two weeks' visit with her aunt, Mrs. C. S. Heimbach, and her grandmother, Mrs. Hannah Garten.

Influence of College Men.

As educated men filter through the community, reforms are obtained that twenty years ago seemed millennial. The separation of local from state sources of revenue, the separation of local from national elections, the treatment of a franchise as valuable property, the discriminating between ordinary industry and natural monopoly, the practice of scientific charity and penology, the concentration of responsibility in government—these and a score of other good things which once seemed as far above popular comprehension as four-dimensional space, have come to pass, thanks chiefly to the radiations from the classrooms.—Century Magazine.

Receiver Has Sanitary Ear Pad.

Sanitary attachments for the transmitters of telephones are numerous in this country, but France has gone us one better in the matter of a sanitary pad for the receiving end of the telephone. The ordinary hard-rubber earpiece of the monophone type of instrument, which is much used in France, is removed and its place taken by a round pad formed of 250 leaves of sterilized paper. Every time the telephone is used one of the leaves is torn off. The purpose of the pad is, of course, to protect the ear from being soiled.—Popular Mechanics.

Contrast.

Upton Sinclair at a vegetarian dinner in New York condemned certain laws.

"We scrap machinery that is five or ten years old," said Mr. Sinclair, "but we are content to live under laws formed three centuries ago."

Plan to Make Rome Seaport.

The latest project to make Rome a seaport is to lay out a port 35 feet deep near Castel Fusaro, formed by running two jetties out into the sea for some distance, as at the port of Ymuiden, Holland. From the port will lead a ship canal 15 miles long and 200 feet wide and 27 feet deep. At Rome shipping accommodations will be laid out in the river below the city, and this will be connected with the navigable part of the Tiber by a system of locks. It will cost about $15,000,000 to carry out the project. Opponents of the idea claim it will not pay, but the promoters affirm that when once the city is connected with the Mediterranean there will result a great amount of traffic.

Refutation Tours.

"People are very likely to believe what they see in print." "Yep," replied Farmer Cornstossel. "That's why those candidates have to keep travelin' around the country so much. They have to prove that they don't look like some of the pictures of 'em that get into the papers."

Too Much "Ette."

Elizabeth Murray was talking last winter at a tea at the Colony club in New York about charity.

"At this time of the year," she said, "it is a wise charity to give warm, soft, woolen underwear to the children of the poor. This saves poor children from the hardships of flannel."

"I heard of an East Side mother the other day who bought a shirt of flannel for her little boy. The shirt was very cheap; but after the first washing she brought it back to the dealer again."

"I think, sir," she said, "you ought to change this. When I washed it the flannel all came out and only left the ette."

HAD LOST HIS "CREDENTIALS"

Salesman May Have Improved His Appearance, But Shave Cost Him Customers.

Charles A. Cotterill has a grand and gorgeous set of whiskers which, in their own gold and tawny way, show as many varying hues as changeable silk under the midday sun. There are mixed up in that growth of beard all the marvelous tints of the sunrise, the South African gold mines, and the circus posters. But there is a sad story connected with the facial adornment.

The first year that Cotterill traveled for a big drug firm of New York city, he waved the whiskers up and down a wide territory, selling much merchandise and making many friends. At the end of the season he got a shave and on his next trip the tragedy began to unfold. Nobody knew him. Every time he went up to a man to whom he had made a sale previously, the fellow would say:

"You are not Cotterill. How well I remember Cotterill! He was a merry, good-natured, entertaining fellow, and he told such good stories. Besides, he had whiskers, and you have none. You can't be Cotterill."

After a week of this, Cotterill, utterly dejected by the fact that he could make no headway in his business, telegraphed his firm as follows: "Must have leave of absence long enough to grow a beard."

He has not shaved since.—Popular Magazine.

MODEL IN A DOUBLE SENSE

One Quality in Wax Figure Which Convinced Mr. Jones She Would Make a Good Wife.

Mr. Jones came home at an unseemly hour the other night, and was surprised to see Mrs. Jones sitting up for him below stairs with no other light than that of the gas lamp which faced the door to keep her company. "M-M-Marie," he said, huskily, "you shouldn't sit up 'sate when I'm out on business."

As Mrs. Jones did not answer him, he continued, in an alarmed voice:

"Sherry, m'dear, but it's late time—tell you I'm sorry—won't speak to me?"

At this moment Mrs. Jones called from above stairs:

"Mr. Jones, to whom are you talking at this hour of the night?"

"Thash what I'd like to know m-m-myself," stammered Jones.

Mrs. Jones hastened downstairs, lamp in hand. When she saw the situation, she laughed, in spite of being very angry.

"It's the model," she said. "The model I bought today to fit my dresses on!"

"Yes, thash so," said Jones, tipsily. "Model woman—didn't talk back. Make some fellow good wife."

Point of View.

When the necessity of daily labor is removed and the call of social duty fulfilled, that of moderate and timely amusement claims its place as a want inherent in our own nature. To relieve this want and fill up the mental vacancy games are devised, books are written, music is composed, spectacles and plays are invented and exhibited. And if these plays have a moral and virtuous tendency; if the sentiments expressed are calculated to rouse our love of what is noble, and our contempt of what is base and mean; if they unite hundreds in a sympathetic admiration of virtue, abhorrence of vice or derision of folly—it will remain to be shown how far the spectator is more criminally engaged than if he had passed the evening in the idle gossip of society, in the feverish pursuits of ambition or in the unseated and insatiable struggle after gain.—Walter Scott.

Wife's Unqualified Praise.

The young novelist, had had a hard time of it, and his dear wife had had just as hard a one. She held his talents in poor esteem and often urged him to try something else, for she was sometimes hungry and all the time ill clad. But one day his luck changed. He began to make money. And there came a day when he was able to write his check for $100 and pass it to his wife.

Her eyes filled with tears as she read it.

"Willbrand, darling," she said, as she hastened around the table and put her arm about his neck, "I'll take back all the mean things I ever said about your work. This is the best thing you ever wrote!"

Legend About the Wind.

We have plenty of wind in London just now, especially at that corner by Blackfriars Station. But the men of Lincoln assert that the breeziest spot in England is outside their cathedral. According to a local legend, the devil some hundreds of years ago met the wind outside the cathedral and told him to wait there while he went in to see the dean and chapter. The wind is still waiting, for the devil has not yet been able to tear himself away from the congenial society he found on paying his visit. Consequently all the year round a strong breeze blows in front of Lincoln cathedral.—London Chronicle.
